

SUGARCREEK TOWNSHIP
RESOLUTION NO. 2020.01.06.01
IN RE: Dedicating Michael E. Pittman Community Trail

WHEREAS, Michael E. Pittman has served as a member of the Sugarcreek Township Zoning Commission and currently sits on the Sugarcreek Township Board of Trustees since he was elected in 2006; and,

WHEREAS, Mr. Pittman desired to create the opportunity for kids to walk and bike to school and was able to harness the excitement generated through the Safe Routes to School initiative to further his dream for a walkable and bikeable Sugarcreek Township; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Pittman advocated tirelessly to create a walkable community wherein residents would have access to a pathway network to walk to football games, to downtown Bellbrook, and to the Township's commercial corridor; and

WHEREAS, On January 6, 2020, Trustees Nadine Daugherty and Carolyn Destefani passed Resolution Number 2020.01.06.01 proclaiming the date as 'Michael E. Pittman Community Connectivity Day' while further declaring all existing and future Sugarcreek pathways and trails to be named as the 'Michael E. Pittman Community Trail'.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it proclaimed that the Trustees of Sugarcreek Township, Ohio, officially proclaim, today, Monday, January 6th, 2020, as 'Michael E. Pittman Community Connectivity Day'.
