It is with great sadness that on this 23rd day of October 2011, that I have to submit my resignation from Sugarcreek Township Fire Department. I no longer have the time to fully commit to the requirements of continuing as a part time employee. I would like to thank the officers and fellow firefighters of Sugarcreek Township Fire for 14 years of experience and memories that will last a life time.

Sincerely,

Christopher P. LaDue

To Sugarcreek Township Board of Trustees and Fire Department:

This letter is to inform of my resignation from the fire department effective immediately. Due to other commitments and the increased demands placed on the volunteers I no longer have the time to adequately perform the duties required.

Thank you,

Jon Fisher
