Wednesday September 21, 2022

Chief Brown,

Please except this letter of resignation from the position of Police Officer, effective two weeks from September 23, 2022. Friday October 07, 2022 will be my final day as a sworn Police Officer with the Sugar Creek Township Police Department. I have accepted the full-time position of Deputy Sheriff with the Warren County Sheriff's Office.

It has been an honor working with the department and serving the community of Sugar Creek Township, as this was not an easy decision to make. However, this position will help further my experience and knowledge to help myself advance in my career.

I want to thank you for the opportunity, knowledge and experience I have gained during my tenure with the department. I wish you and everyone at the Sugar Creek Township Police Department a safe and happy journey moving forward.

Respectfully,

Adam R. Klark
